

At the Table With Jesus

Mark 14:12-31

Who is invited?

- ❑ People who fail Jesus, others, and themselves.

What does it mean?

- ❑ Jesus' broken body and shed blood saves people who fail.

GETTING STARTED: Were meals important in your family growing up? Why or why not? What is one of your favorite memories around a meal?

DIGGING DEEPER: Why does there seem to be some secrecy around the planning of the meal (Mk 14:11; Jn 11:57)? What things does Jesus do that show he is in complete control of the situation? What does Jesus say about the betrayal (v. 18)? How do the disciples react to this jolting statement? What does Jesus say about all the disciples (v. 27)? How do they react? How does Peter react? How does Peter "throw the other disciples under the bus" (v. 29)? How does this meal relate to the Passover (Ex 12; Dt 16:5-8)? What is Jesus' new interpretation of the bread and the wine (vv. 22-25; see also 1 Cor. 5:7)? What insights do the following verses give about the covenant (promise) that Jesus is making to not fail people who have failed (Ex 24:3-9; Jer 31:31-34; Heb 8:6-13, 9:13-22, 10:1-4; Mk 10:45)? How much do you think the disciples understood when Jesus referred to the bread and wine as His body and blood?

LIVING IT OUT: How did you fail Jesus, others, or yourself this week? What regrets do you carry from failures of Jesus, others, or yourself in the past? How does Jesus work on the cross speak to this? What will you do this week to remind yourself of the meaning of the table for you?
