

God-given Ambition

The outer focus of our ambition:

to forward God's purpose for His world.

- This is in contrast to forwarding our purposes for ourselves.
- It will always involve some kind of personal choice.
- It may also involve difficulties which test us acutely.
such as re-direction or opposition or disappointment.
- The rewards of perseverance are profoundly satisfying.

The inner focus of our ambition:

to know Christ Jesus our Lord.

- This is in contrast to working to establish our own worth or ability.
- Success is measured by the degree of likeness to Christ.
- We must keep pressing on toward the goal.

God-given Ambition

The outer focus of our ambition:

to forward God's purpose for His world.

- This is in contrast to forwarding our purposes for ourselves.
- It will always involve some kind of personal choice.
- It may also involve difficulties which test us acutely.
such as re-direction or opposition or disappointment.
- The rewards of perseverance are profoundly satisfying.

The inner focus of our ambition:

to know Christ Jesus our Lord.

- This is in contrast to working to establish our own worth or ability.
- Success is measured by the degree of likeness to Christ.
- We must keep pressing on toward the goal.