God's Word, My Delight

Psalm 119

If you want a God-oriented life...

□ Make lots of space for God's Word in your life.

▪ Turn off

▪ Say, "NO" to

□ Develop skill in handling God's Word.

▪ Plan

▪ Practices

GETTING STARTED: Name a teacher you have had who obviously loved the subject matter they were teaching. What did they do and say that made this clear?

DIGGING DEEPER: Read aloud Ps 119 verses 1-24. Make a list of all the different words used to refer to God's Word. What does this tell you about the Psalmist knowledge about God's Word? What promise is implied in seeking and obeying the LORD (verses 1-3)? What other benefits do you see in these 24 verses? What verses give insight into the Psalmist's longing for God's Word? On a scale of 1-10, how would you rate your current longing for the Word of God in your life? Make a list of the active ways the Psalmist takes in the Word of God? Which of these are you doing or not doing? What attitudes does this Psalm reveal are critical in following God's Word?

LIVING IT OUT: Would you say you make a lot of space or a little space for God's Word in your life? What will you "turn off" to make space for God's Word? Where do you sense you are lacking in skill to handle God's Word? Why? What could you do to improve or who could you ask for direction in improving? Will you read the New Testament with us this year for the purpose of connecting with Jesus and trusting Him to change you? (Go to www.northwestbible.org/read-listen-respond to join us.) When will you do it each day?
