Center Stage

Hebrews

Angels (Ch 1-2)	Moses (Ch 3-4)	Sacrifices (Ch 5-10)
For me?	For me?	For me?
How? (Ch 11-13)

Getting Started: What moments this month have made you want to give up on following Jesus? What specific things/stuff in your life are sometimes more enticing to you than Jesus (Angels)? What specific hopes from your past or future do you cling to for security (Moses)? What specific ways do you try to make yourself good enough to be approved by others and God (Sacrifices)?

Digging Deeper: How are your eyes closed to Jesus when you struggle with these? In the specific things you shared above, why don't they satisfy, give you security, or make you feel good enough? What keeps Jesus from trumping your love for things, your striving for hope and security, and your attempts to clean yourself up?

Living It Out: List the normal ways you categorize your life (ex. work, family, leisure, etc.). Which areas elevate themselves above Christ, and how do they do so? List the major things you do in each of these areas (ex. "In my family we eat together on Sundays," or "I take the kids to school and soccer," or "I go on dates.") List three to five major things in each category. Pray through, "Why?" Is your motivation centered in Christ? What changes do you need to make so you can fix your eyes on Jesus?
