

Priorities

Haggai

- Priority of God's people: To know Him and make Him known.
 - Old Testament: The Temple
 - New Testament: The Church

- Priority Distractions:
 - Present comfort
 - Past success

- Priority Living Requires:
 - Careful thought
 - Dependent action

Read Haggai. Why was the temple so important in the OT? See 2 Chr 3-4, 5:13-14, 6, 7:1-3. How did God use the temple to show off His person and purposes? How does the church now show the person and purposes of God to the world? See Mt 28:19-20; Eph 1:22-23, 2:19-22; 1 Cor 3:9; 1 Tim 1:4; Heb 3:6; 1 Pe 2:4-5. Read Haggai 1:2-4. "Take careful thought" and ask yourself, "How does a desire for present comfort distract me from knowing Him and making Him known?" Read Haggai 2:3. In what ways are you/we focused on past successes? How might this create a reluctance to change? How might this keep you from fully engaging in God's work at our church today? How do the following verses enable you to trust God with the current state of His church: Hag 2:9; Col 1:17-18? How do God's promises enable His people to live out His priorities? See Haggai 1:13-15, 2:4. How do the following verses reveal our inability to build the church apart from the promised Spirit of God: Jn 14:26, 16:13; Ac 1:8; 1 Cor 2:4, 12:4; Eph 4:1-6? How does this affect how you view and seek success in the local church?
